

Kelvion

General Purchasing Conditions (December 2015)

German law shall be applicable.

Subcontractor's general terms and conditions, as well as other supplier's conditions differing from the wording of our order, will not be acknowledged by us.

§ 377 HGB (German Commercial Code) shall not apply.

In case a justified claim is made on the purchaser by one of his customers due to supplier's public expressions concerning the supplied product, especially statements made in the supplier's advertisement or in connection with the supplied product's labeling, the supplier shall exempt the purchaser from all resulting necessary costs and damages including legal expenses.

The limitation period for such claims shall be 3 years.

The limitation period shall begin according to § 199 BGB (German Civil Code).